Dear Comrade Pannekoek - Comrade M. C. Harris, of 14 Bishop St, Newport, Mon., Wales, has written to me to ask if it is possible for me to print & publish a book by you on "Workers' Councils". He may have sent my reply to him on to you. I am able to do this, altho my press is a very much out-of-date affair, as revolutionary presses usually are. Tomorrow I will send you a collection of my pamphlets, not all, for so much is out of print. I am prepared to do all the typesetting, printing, folding, stitching free, but ^{I must} have help to buy the paper required.
I must have help to buy the paper required.
^{against that I would give a true account} Again - that I would give a true account: I would ^{advertise} advertise the book or books well; and I would try to get the money outlayed returned at the earliest date, with extra if possible. I don't ^{in profit} write & publish at a loss and with a struggle all the time. But I feel, always, that the revolutionary is entitled to live tonight to receive some reward or consideration for his labours. I don't apply this to myself. I don't apply it to others.

Yours fraternally.

With Best wishes + much appreciation for your best work, which I have used, altho I have never written to you about it.

Fr. A. Aldred.
