Dear Anton Pannekoek,

thanks for your letter and the friendly remarks regarding the publication of your booklet. I hope you will not find any bad printing mistakes. It is too early to tell whether or not the pamphlet will sell well. I will report to you on this so soon as things look clearer. It has been advertised in MODERN REVIEW, POLITICS, PARTISAN REVIEW, RETORT, INDUSTRIAL WORKER, and a few other magazines, which have not as yet come out with their issues. 2.000 letters have been mailed to addresses of people possibly be interested. The March issue of LEFT in England carries on advertisement. So possibly will other publications sooner or later. I will keep you informed. I do everything possible to sell the whole edition. About 50 review copies have been sent out. If reviews appear I will forward them to you. All the addresses you sent have received copies. Also Diez in Chile. I have sent you at once 10 copies for your personal use and another 10 copies today. I will send more if you can use more. Yes, Dan Passos is the novelist. His article in LIFE was on the same level as Macdonalds. RETORT prints "The Scientists Revolt". "The Other Kingdom" may be a good book about concentration camps. However, I cannot tell for sure as I have not read the book. I am leaving for Bremerhafen April the 3rd and arrive there April the 13th. I can stay 30 days in Berlin. Do not know as yet where else I will be allowed to go. I do not think any longer that it will be possible for me to go to Holland and France. I have just enough money to
