Dear Anton Pannekoek,

thanks for your letter of March 19th. I hope you received meanwhile the additional 10 copies I have sent. If you need more, I will send more. The only printing error that worries me is the substitution of "king" for "kind". Some of the the other corrections you suggest are debatable. However, if you insist, we will make a small page of corrections to be inserted into the pamphlet.

I wrote you already that I leave for Germany on April 3rd. I will try to take a Dutch boat back and thus may be in Holland for a few days. In that case I will visit you as well as our friends in Amsterdam. I will write before I come.

Best wishes,
